Newsletter Recap

I hope everyone is having a wonderful summer. We here in Greece are experiencing more than just hot weather, as I'm sure you've seen on the news!

This month I want to go over a few items that may need clarifying about this newsletter.

Our intention is to come out with a monthly electronic (only) issue, that is unless we don't have any content (Deadline the 10th of the month, drop dead deadline is the 15th). Please check out the How to Submit instructions on page 7 for details on how to submit your story. (We no longer want files in PDF format - it's now just normal .doc or .txt files.) Please include the headline you would like to see used - try to be brief but add a sub-head if you feel you need more explanation. We prefer all photos submitted as separate file [e.g. jpg] attachments

Servas Zambia Wants More Travellers

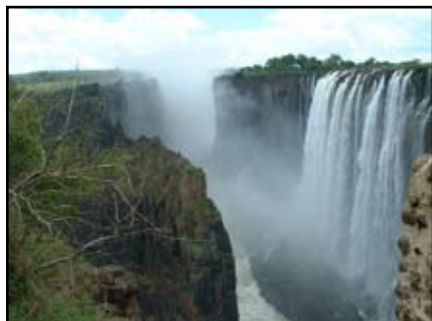

By Clare Mateke - National Secretary, SERVAS ZAMBIA
 servas@zambia.org

There are currently 15 Servas hosts in Zambia and many have never received a traveller so have not had a first-hand Servas host-traveller experience. Servas Zambia met in Livingstone in April 2011. Only half the hosts managed to attend the meeting, but a good time was had by all and many issues were covered.

During the meeting hosts discussed the travellers they had received and it was discovered that some of the hosts had never received a traveller. Those that had received travellers had mostly had only 1 or 2 a year. Only about 10 Servas groups or individuals appear to have passed through Zambia and been which are costly and time-consuming, so many do not check their e-mail very often. This has resulted in a few hosts missing out on travellers who have tried to contact them. It was decided that the best way for travellers to contact hosts was through their mobile phones, or by emailing several months ahead. There is need for more hosts in some towns, hosted in the last 3 years. Hosts who have never received travellers feel they are missing out on the Servas experience. Most Zambians cannot afford to travel, so the only way they can experience Servas is through hosting. Many hosts have communication limitations, since they can only access internet at internet cafes, especially the ones on major tourist routes, and the members discussed possible methods of recruiting more hosts. They also discussed the possibility of making exchange visits with Servas in neighbouring countries. Another host meeting is planned for October 2011. Zambia has a lot to offer travellers – some of the best wildlife experiences in Africa, the Victoria Falls and many other beautiful waterfalls, many large lakes and rivers, cultural ceremonies, and much more. But all this can be made special by staying in a Zambian home and experiencing Zambian life first hand.

Please visit Zambia and stay with our hosts, who look forward to taking care of you and showing you around!

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Gary Sealey, our fearless President, is off on vacation this month and has asked Jonny Saganger, National Secretary for Sweden, to write this month's message. Thanks Jonny! -ed

Step towards a more digital Servas

The Servas Sweden annual national meeting decided in March 2010 that Servas Sweden should stop printing the Swedish host list. It's now a little more than a year since the members made that bold move to cut down on costs, ease the pressure on nature and improve the quality of the personal data about the Swedish hosts.

Since then paper copies of the Swedish host list are distributed only to key persons in other countries that have specifically requested paper copies. All others are kindly asked to use the "Dolphin Host List Storage Area".

The key persons can use the pdf and print exactly the number of copies of the hostlist that are actually needed.

Swedish hosts who wish to receive a personal paper copy of the host list do get one by regular mail. Our evaluation shows

Servas Argentina's Mendoza Meeting

By Marlene Von During (NS) & Ana Manghi (Deputy) - info@anamanghi.com

Mendoza is the place where all foreigners visiting Argentina head to after staying in Buenos Aires for a few days. Servas Argentina set up this 2 day meeting and it was attended by members from different regions of our country. The aim was to be together, share experiences, have the chance to get to know each other and to strengthen our relationships.

We had had our former meetings in Merlo, San Luis Province. In Mendoza we shared some gorgeous sunny days and lots of good wine, we went trekking in the pre cordillera of the Andes where we left a statement of our expedition signed by all the people who took part in it with a flag specially created for this event. We visited natural hot springs, we ate meat cooked in a mudbrick oven, we went rafting on the Mendoza river and we visited an organic vineyard ending up with a wonderful debate about our peace mission in the Servas community.

We met local hosts, we incorporated new members and we honoured Mr Francisco Morón, an Argentinian member who received most guests (approximately 530 fellows) We have appointed a new local interviewer to help in the growth of the region. We want to thank all the people who joined us in this meeting and to invite all Servas members to visit our country. It's huge, there're many awesome landscapes to visit and our welcome is as big as our hearts. We want to show you some photos!!!

Uganda Africa Area/Youth Meeting Update

Discussions promise to be exciting and meaningful

By Sheldon G. Weeks, Servas Botswana

The combined Africa Area Meeting and World Youth Meeting so far has over 50 registered participants who will gather near Entebbe, Uganda on Lake Victoria from the 31st of July to the 6th of August 2011. They come from at least ten countries in Africa and another ten from South and North America, Europe the Middle East and Oceania. More are welcome. We are grateful for the combined support of SI, the DC, Servas Belgium, Britain, New Zealand and Spain. This promises to be an important gathering that will lead to the further development of Servas across Africa. Click here to see some of the suggested issues for discussion. Translate Servas News into Your Country's Language.

By Terry Stone, Editor-Servas News

We have received several requests for help with translating the newsletter into different languages. We want Servas International News to be accessible to as many members as possible, so, to help toward achieving that goal, we are offering to make current issues of Servas International News available to any Servas member country who would like to convert them into their native language.

To receive a complete, press-ready packaged file the country's Servas National Secretary should send a request by email to newsletter@servas.org. Instructions on where and how to obtain the file will be furnished at that time.

Servas International News is produced using Adobe InDesign CS2 for Macintosh. A press-ready, packaged file will contain all the fonts, photos and linked graphics used in the current issue along with the complete InDesign file. You must have either a Mac or PC version of Adobe InDesign CS2 v4.0 or better to open the file. Please remember that certain fonts may not convert properly from Mac to PC so some adjustments might be necessary when opening the file in a Windows machine.

If you do not have Adobe InDesign and want to produce a version of Servas International News using another software application you can still make use of the images and graphics contained in the packaged file and use a PDF copy of the current issue as a design and production template or a guide to rebuild your copy of Servas International News. Experience with the preferred software and producing publications or other materials is highly recommended.

TRAVEL ADVENTURES

Do you have a travel story from your corner of the world? Share your adventure and experiences with other Servas members. We will feature one a month. Please send your story and photos to newsletter@servas.org. - ed

WHO'S WHO IN SERVAS

Penny Pattison, General Secretary, Servas International penny.servas@gmail.com

I have been a member of Servas for over 25 years. My first Servas travel experience was in India in early 1984. It was much more difficult to communicate with hosts in those days! I moved to Victoria, British Columbia on the west coast of Canada and became a Servas host in 1985. I live here with my husband, Chris Jones.

I enjoy singing in a choir, outdoor activities, gardening and theatre, and I am involved in several volunteer activities in Victoria, including mentoring a little girl in elementary school, and sitting on the Boards of the Greater Victoria Community Social Planning Council and Oikocredit Canada West micro-finance Cooperative. I also volunteer for a lot of cultural activities, such as the annual Fringe theatre festival

My working life has been mainly in Information Technology, most recently as a Project Manager and Business Analyst. My working interest has always centered on the interaction between people and computer systems, rather than the technology itself. I have a strong leaning towards manageable goals and projects, including identifying and celebrating when a project or phase of a project is completed. I have been doing part-time contract work for the last few years, and I am presently taking a break from paid employment. I love travel! I have spent time in a variety of countries around the world, including a 3-month volunteer opportunity in India in the mid-1980s. That experience cemented my interest in and enjoyment of the diversity of cultures around the world. We are all in this world together and there is a lot that we can all learn and share with each other.

I am committed to Servas because Servas gives me the opportunity to experience a country from the inside, and I treasure these experiences. I feel very fortunate to have friends all over the world because of Servas, who have taught me so much about their lives. While I enjoy the fact that we have so many things in common, I also really like to experience the differences in our different cultures! I have been a Servas Canada interviewer and host coordinator for 20 years, and was National Secretary for 7 years. That ends at the end of 2009 when I became Servas International General Secretary, although I continue to be a Servas Canada interviewer.

I wanted to become SI General Secretary because I really believe in Servas, and I thought that I could contribute at the international level. It is a challenging and time-consuming role, I must admit! It was important to me to make the SI processes as clear and transparent as possible, and that is why we have posted all of the EXCO minutes, status reports and other activities – to get a feel for the functioning of Servas at the international level, please check out www.servas.org/siexco/index.php/Annual_Report_materials.

And, in this role, I am privileged to have the opportunity to see Servas world-wide, and appreciate the wonderful variety of members and ideas!

Each month we would like to run a short biography from someone in Servas. Please submit or suggest. - ed

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

CORRECTION TO PALESTINE STORY

For those who received the June issue with an article about Palestine, please note the following corrections:

Differently from what has been announced in our previous Newsletter issue, Palestine cannot be listed as a new Servas International member group, as it is not a... State.... We Servas, as a peaceful organisation, hope the Middle East international negotiations and the peace process continue successfully. If Palestine will be declared and recognized by UN as an independent country, Servas International will be happy to welcome it among its members provided it meets the Servas membership criteria.

We thank Sahar, Judy, Erminia, Zafira, Nancy and Pablo for establishing contacts and putting their efforts into it.

Luisa Corbetta

Servas International Peace Secretary

AND, A CORRECTION ON CORDOBA

The article related to Cordoba that we sent by Isabel Romero for the Servas publication has a mistake: it states that Servas was first known in 2003. What it should say is that Servas has been in Corboba since 1972. Isabel is abroad right now; that's why I took the liberty to send you this email. I'm the coordinator for Servas in Corboda.

Thanks, Amalia

We want to hear from you. Your comments, suggestions are welcome. All members are encouraged to write with concerns, questions, problems, solutions, or the joke of the month! Tell us what you want to see in future issues your Servas News! -ed

that very, very few hosts ask for a printed copy.

This means we only send host lists to the countries and Swedish hosts that have made such a request. We claim that this is making the best use of scarce global resources. We are aware that some countries might think that we give them extra work and that the cost for printing the lists end up in other countries. This is of course true, but only in a limited perspective, since in total, for the whole Servas community this way of working is less time- and resource consuming.

Servas Sweden is of course not the only country in this organization that has made this change. But since members in some member countries are still hesitating, I would like to send these words as an encouragement to move towards a more digital, service minded and user friendly Servas.

Servas Sweden now eagerly look forward to the day – hopefully in the near future – when the Internet based host- and traveller system Servas Online will become reality.

How to Submit to Servas News

IMPORTANT: Submission deadline for content is the 15th of the month!!! Material received after deadline will be held for insertion into the following issue.

TIPS: Assume that the reader is new to Servas. Tell the Who, What, Where and When in the first paragraph. Avoid abbreviations. Keep articles to one page if possible. Make your item engaging and interesting, and pertinent to a global audience. We will not be posting individual country events or announcements. Long reports, such as technical and financial data, go to Renee (reneeendron@hotmail.com) for posting on www.Servas.org.

Everything will be posted as submitted! Please include a gripping headline (upper & lower case), author byline along with contact info, captions for photos. Spell check and proof your story, twice. We here at Newsletter Central will not edit copy.

We're looking for:

- Global calendar items
- Articles, opinion pieces, travel stories
- Letters to the Editor
- Short quotes regarding peace/Servas
- Short jokes, funny stories
- Web sites of interest to Servas members
- Questions about Servas

Technical Tips

- Prepare your story in a text application such as Microsoft Word, TextEdit. Save as a .doc or .txt format.
- Attach photos to email in JPEG format. DO NOT PLACE PHOTO INTO THE TEXT DOCUMENT. Use file names that match your story.
- Key photo captions to the photos (photo A, photo B, etc.) and list them at the end of your story.
- If it is not possible to use a text application software you can write your story in the body of an email.
- Avoid fancy formatting and do not double-space after a sentence - single-space only or put a space before a comma. Remember, a computer is not a typewriter.

If you have any questions, please feel free to ask:
newsletter@servas.org

REMEMBER: What you write is what we'll post. Please thoroughly proof your article/letter before submitting it.
